VCAL PROGRAM FOR YOUNG PARENTS

Narre Community Learning Centre (NCLC) is taking expressions of interest for a new program commencing in February 2018 that would offer parents aged 15 - 20 the opportunity to undertake a Victorian Certificate in Applied Learning (VCAL) course, in a supported and flexible learning environment.

Students are encouraged to bring their babies into class whilst studying, allowing young parents to bond with their babies and complete their education. The VCAL program will comprise of literacy, numeracy, personal development, work related skills and VET units.

Your learning space is designed to support optimal learning for both student and baby. A qualified child care worker will be in attendance during every class. The curriculum is written with you in mind and will incorporate parental skills and knowledge.

This is your opportunity to gain your VCAL (VCALFND001 Foundation, VCALINT001 Intermediate, and/or VCALSNR001 Senior) while continuing to provide care for your baby.

This is a free program supported by the State and Commonwealth Governments.

This program is supported by YPEP Consortium
